

of their choice, myself, for instance, is an example, though my husband applied for no pension. He entered service at the age limit, 16, and was in many battles and in prison seven months; married in middle life a woman just half his age, who bore him six children. Does it look fair?

Please do all you can for my indigent widows, regardless of when they were born. They played a very important part in the last half of the lives of Confederate families, for families sometimes larger than the first marriage, and should certainly have some consideration; and I have pledged myself to do all in my power to get this pension business on a fair basis.

We do not have many veterans now left, but they are mostly those who married the second time and had the second family, and certainly their faithful wives should have the pension.

Believe me, most sincerely and fraternally,

MRS. J. K. BIVINS,

Past President D. D. C. of Texas.

REASON FOR VOTING AGAINST ACCEPTING REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

On Monday, June 10th, 1929, the House, as reflected by the House Journal, refused to adopt the report of the committee appointed to select attorneys and compensation to be paid by a vote of 48 yeas and 57 nays. Motion was then made to reconsider the vote by which the House refused to adopt the report and to table the motion to reconsider—which prevailed by a vote of 57 yeas and 51 nays.

Now, I contend that there was nothing before the House and that the House by its action refused to employ the attorneys recommended by the committee, and that the Veatch resolution fixing the fees at $2400 was out of order because of the fact that the House had no attorneys to fix compensation for. The House is now proceeding in its deliberation without duly authorized legal counsel and the attorneys are not entitled to compensation because of the above fact.

SHERRILL.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ENROLLED BILLS.

Committee Room,

Austin, Texas, June 10, 1929.

Hon. W. S. Barron, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: Your Committee on Enrolled Bills, to whom was referred

H. B. No. 38, "An Act authorizing commissioners courts in counties in Texas having a population of at least 202,000 inhabitants and less than 210,000 inhabitants, as shown by the census of 1920, in which are established hospitals jointly owned or operated by any city and county, to levy a direct tax of not over 10 cents on the valuation of $100 for the purpose of erecting buildings and other improvements and for maintaining and operating such hospitals, and providing that all such levy of taxes shall be submitted to the qualified taxpaying voters of the county and a majority vote to be necessary to levy the taxes, and declaring an emergency."

Have carefully compared same and find it correctly enrolled.

SENATE BILL ON FIRST READING.

The following Senate bill, received from the Senate today, was laid before the House, read first time and referred to the appropriate committee, as follows:

Senate bill No. 4, to the Committee on Appropriations.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. Pat Dougherty, secretary to the Governor, appeared at the bar of the House and, being announced, presented the following message from the Governor, which was read to the House, as follows:

Executive Office,
June 12, 1929.

To the Members of the Forty-first Legislature:

In addressing the Legislature on June 4th I intended to open the subject of prison reform for your consideration. There seems to be some question as to whether that subject was opened, and it is the purpose of this message to open for your consideration the subject of enacting laws to provide for the concentration and modernization of our Texas prison system.

The pressing importance of this matter is emphasized by the calamitous overflow which the prison system is now suffering. I hope very much that the differences of opinion existing upon this subject can be composed and that the Legislature will enact a bill giving the Prison Commission authority to formulate plans for the concentration of the system and report these plans to the Legislature.

Respectfully submitted,
DAN MOODY,
Governor.

PROVIDING FOR COMMITTEE IN REGARD TO CONFEDERATE PENSIONS.

The Speaker laid before the House, for consideration at this time, the following resolution:

S. C. R. No. 8, Providing for committee in regard to Confederate pensions:

Be it resolved by the Senate of Texas, the House of Representatives concurring therein, That a committee of two members of the Senate, to be appointed by the Lieutenant Governor, and three members of the House, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House, for the purpose of immediately conferring with the Governor of Texas and the Comptroller of Public Accounts and the Attorney General, for the purpose of reporting to the Legislature a bill which will satisfactorily dispose of the question of Confederate pensions.

The resolution was read second time, and was adopted.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ANNOUNCED ON HOUSE BILL NO. 5.
